TWO GOVERNMENTS

Trying to Find a Way to Settle the Salton Sea Question.

Mexico City, Nov. 5.—A commission composed of Mexican engineers and experts was dispatched by the Mexican government to the scene of the late floods caused by the diversion of the channel of the Colorado river to study the problem which, for some time, has called for the attention of the United States and Mexican governments. The Salton sea question has become international, and it is said here in government circles that the discussion through ordinary diplomatic channels regarding the responsibility for the damage resulting will be dropped for the time being in order that the immediate action which the situation deserves may be properly attended to. Both governments have spent immense sums in an effort to check the advance of the waters.

Suspect Suicided.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 5—As a sequel to the assassination of Mrs. William Garrett at Mountain City, comes the suicide of Marshall or John Hawkins, 30, a near neighbor of the woman. His suicide followed the learning that he was under suspicion for the killing of Mrs. Garrett. Hawkins leaves a widow and three small children. His reputation has been excellent and he never before was under suspicion. Hawkins became connected with the case by the discovery of a letter which he wrote Mrs. Garrett and which is in the possession of the commonwealth attorney.

Mrs. Susan Miller Buried at Chili

Mrs. Susan Miller died at her home at the corner of Third and Chestnut streets, Saturday night about 11 o'clock. Death was due to a complication of diseases, Mrs. Miller having been very ill about six weeks. She was born April 3 1838 and died November 3, 1906 aged 68 years and 7 months. Her maiden name was Susan Myer. At the age of 18 years she married Abraham Swigert, who died September 17, 1876. Five children blessed this union. In 1885, Mrs. Swigert again united in marriage with John Miller, and lived happily with him until his death in December 1891. Mrs. Miller is survived by but two children, Mrs. Edward Stevenson and Mrs. Sarah Swigert. Rev. Weber had charge of the services at the residence Monday morning, and the remains were taken to Chili for burial.

Hallowe'en week was a busy week in college circles, from both a literary and social standpoint. Tuesday evening the Orpheus club, which consists of the members of the musical departments and the faculty spent an evening with Chopin. Excellent papers were read on Chopin as a man and Chopin as a teacher. Both vocal and instrumental solos by this great composer were rendered and a permanent organization was effected with Miss Satterwhite as president and Helena Ferguson as secretary.

Wednesday evening the Irving literary society held a social in their hall. The faculty was entertained and a few other invited guests. Light refreshments were served.

Thursday evening Miss Satterwhite entertained the entire college faculty and their wives at the residence of Dr. Thrapp, where she makes her home this year. Miss Satterwhite proved as resourceful an entertainer in a social way as she is in musical lines. A delightful evening was spent in various contests which kept the minds of the guests constantly alert. As each person came in he was taken into a room prepared for the purpose and a shadow portrait was taken. These were numbered an the guessing of each person's profile was very amusing. Dainty refreshments were serve and each guest found his place at the table by means of unique place cards decorated with the college colors. These were retained as souvenirs.

The Friday afternoon lecture was by Prof. McCuskey, who gave a highly instructive talk on the "Origin and Growth of the English Language." The next Friday lecture will be by one of the students who has only been in this country a year. He will talk on the customs of his native country, which is Wales.

Friday evening the Webster society held its regular bi-weekly meeting, with a good attendance and an interesting program.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE

The fact that S. S. S. is a purely vegetable preparation, containing not the slightest trace of mineral in any form, has been one of the strongest points in its favor during its forty years of existence. It is recognized everywhere not only as the best of all blood purifiers, but the one medicine that can be taken with absolute safety by the youngest child or the oldest member of the family. Next in importance to removing the cause of any disease is the condition in which the system is left after a course of medical treatment. Medicines containing mercury, potash or other strong mineral ingredients often do permanent injury by eating out the delicate lining and tissues of the stomach, producing chronic dyspepsia, unfavorably affecting the bowels and so damaging the system that even if the original cause of the disease has been removed, it is left in such a deranged and weakened condition that the health is permanently impaired. S. S. S. enjoys the distinction of being the only blood medicine on the market that does not contain a mineral property in some form. Being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks it is absolutely harmless to any part of the system, and while curing disease adds strength and health to every part of the body. S. S. S. removes all poisons, freshens and purifies the blood and gives better and more lasting results than any other blood medicine. S. S. S. is the very best treatment for Rheumatism, Catarrh, Scrofula, Sores and Ulcers, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison and all troubles due to an impure or poisoned blood supply. Besides being the King of blood purifiers S. S. S. is the best and most invigorating of all tonics.

CHAPTER XIX.

FOR a full moment the coroner stood looking down at the pistol in his hand without speaking, but his face hardened and grew stern, so far as lay in the power of a countenance so rubicund.

"I t'ink I shall have to see Mr. Drysdale before I go back to Babylon," he said. "But first let us try to account for t'e presence of t'is pistol in t'at boat."

"How can it be accounted for?" demanded Delroy impatiently. "Good heavens! I tell you Jack Drysdale never killed that man. Perhaps he was boating yesterday. No; he was in New York yesterday—well, Sunday, then—and had the pistol with him and left it in the boat by mistake. How else could it have got there? The murderer wouldn't have put it there."

"Nobody's used th' boat, sir," said William.

"How do you know t'at?" asked the coroner sharply.

"Because, sir, I tied it t' the buoy; an' I know my knot. It's th' same one I jest unfastened."

"Nobody went out except Mr. Drysdale," spoke up Thomas. "I was in th' vestibule till nearly midnight, when Mr. Delroy told me t' go to bed."

"You saw Mr. Drysdale come in?"

"Yes, sir, an' I never saw anybody so worked up an' nervous-like."

"Do you remember what outer garment he wore?"

"He wore his raincoat, sir. I helped him on an' off with it."

"Where are t'e raincoats kept?"

"They usually hang on the rack in th' vestibule, sir. That's Mr. Drysdale's coat that Mr. Delroy has on now."

"Yes," said Delroy, looking down at it; "I didn't notice. I snatched it down in such a hurry"—

He stopped, staring down at the coat, his face suddenly livid.

The others followed his glance.

The top button of the coat was missing. It had evidently been wrenched away with violence, for the cloth was badly torn.

Amid a silence strained, absolute, the coroner took from his pocketbook the button he had found in Graham's hand.

"I believe Mr. Drysdale will find it difficult to explain t'is, gentlemen," he said, his face glowing more and more, and he held against the place the button he had found.

It fitted exactly; the button matched the others on the coat; the shred of cloth was of the same color and material as the remainder of the garment. It was a proof there could be no disputing.

"Let us go up to t'e house and have a talk with Mr. Drysdale," said the coroner.

They followed him in silence from the boathouse and up the broad gravel path.

"Shall I have Drysdale called down?" asked Delroy as they stepped inside.

"No," said the coroner; "I'd prefer to see him in his room."

"Very well," the other acquiesced, and led the way through the still deserted hall and up the stair.

At the top, Tremaine turned to the coroner.

"If you don't mind," he said, "I'll go on to my room. I'm feeling pretty well used up."

The others went on to the next door. Delroy knocked.

"Who's there?" queried Drysdale's voice.

"Open up, Jack," called Delroy. "We've got to see you on some rather important business."

"Important business!" Drysdale repeated, and they heard him cross the room. Then the door was flung open. "Come in—why, what the deuce is all this about, Dickie?"

"Come in and shut the door, Jack," replied Delroy quietly. "This gentleman is Coroner Heffelbower of Babylon. He wishes to ask you a few questions."

Drysdale answered with a stare of amazement, but he stood aside and let them pass into the room.

"I was packing, Dickie," he said. "I've got to go back to New York today, to look after some investments. I'd like to stay, old man, but I really can't"—

Something in the faces of his auditors stopped him, and he changed color.

"Sit down, Mr. Drysdale," said the coroner solemnly, himself taking a chair. "Our business may take some little time. You own a revolver, I believe."

"Yes," said Jack, "a Smith & Wesson. I was just looking for it. When I opened my trunk just now I missed it."

"How long has it been since you saw it?"

"I can't say—two or three days, perhaps."

"Did you have your revolver last night?"

"No; I haven't seen it for a day or two, I tell you."

"Iss t'is your revolver?" asked the coroner, producing the weapon.

Drysdale took it and looked at it with an air of astonishment.

"Why, yes," he said. "Where did you get it?"

"And iss t'is your raincoat?"

"Yes; but what" -

"You wore it when you went out last night?"

"Yes; but I insist"—

"Mr. Drysdale," asked the coroner sternly, "for what purpose did you go out last night, and where did you go?"

Drysdale sprang to his feet, his face red with anger.

"Why, you infernal busybody!" he cried. "It's none of your business."

"T'en you refuse to answer?"

"I most certainly do, and I think you'd better go back to Babylon."

"I shall go back in due time, Mr Drysdale," retorted the coroner in a cool voice, holding up his hand. "Perhaps you have as yet not heard of t'e murder committed here last night and of t'e robbery which accompanied it?"

Drysdale paled suddenly; his hands were trembling.

"Murder!" he repeated blankly. "Robbery!"

The Story of a Medicine.

Its name—"Golden Medical Discovery" was suggested by one of its most important and valuable ingredients — Golden Seal root.

Nearly forty years ago, Dr. Pierce discovered that he could, by the use of pure triple-refined glycerine, aided by a certain degree of constantly maintained heat and with the aid of apparatus and appliances designed for that purpose, extract from our most valuable native medicinal roots their curative properties much better than by the use of alcohol so generally employed. So the now world famed "Golden Medical Discovery," for the cure of weak stomach, indigestion, or dyspepsia, torpid liver, or biliousness and kindred derangements was first made, as it ever since has been, without a particle of alcohol in its make-up.

A glance at the full list of its ingredients, printed on every bottle-wrapper will show that it is made from the most valuable medicinal roots found growing in our American forests. All these ingredients have received the strongest endorsement from the leading medical experts, teachers and writers on Materia Medica who recommend them as the very best remedies for the diseases for which "Golden Medical Discovery" is advised.

A little book of these endorsements has been compiled by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. and will be mailed free to any one asking same by postal card, or letter addressed to the Doctor as above. From these endorsements, copied from standard medical books of all the different schools of practice, it will be found that the ingredients composing the "Golden Medical Discovery" are advised not only for the cure of the above mentioned diseases, but also for the cure of all catarrhal, bronchial and throat affections, accompanied with catarrhal discharges, hoarseness, sore throat, lingering, or hang-on-coughs, and all those wasting affections which, if not promptly and properly treated are liable to terminate in consumption. Take Dr. Pierce's Discovery in time and persevere in its use until you give it a fair trial and it is not likely to disappoint. Too much must not be expected of it. It will not perform miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. It will cure the affections that lead up to consumption, if taken in time.

Sawyer Held $1,000 Policy

The remains of Joseph Sawyer, who was shot and killed by Charles Harvey at Trinway Wednesday evening, arrived in Coshocton on No. 10, Friday morning. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Haas, of Dresden, at the home of his sister, Mrs. Henry Robson, in Orange street, Coshocton, at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon.

The services were in charge of Dennison Division No. 278, Order of Railway Conductors, of which Mr. Sawyer was a member, and in which he carried $1,000 insurance. A large number of the order from this place attended the services, and took with them a beautiful floral emblem. The tragic death of this son is a severe blow to the aged father, who is 81 years of age.—Dennison Paragraph.

Sells More of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of All Others Put Together.

The following letter from a live city where Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is well known shows by the unprecedented demand for it that the medicine sells on its own merit. Mr. Thos. George, a merchant at Mt. Elgin, Ontario, says: "I have had the local agency for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ever since it was introduced into Canada, and I sell as much of it as I do of all other lines I have on my shelves put together. Of the many dozens sold under guarantee, I have not had one bottle returned. I can personally recommend this medicine as I have used it myself and given it to my children and always with the best results." For sale by C. E Anderson's drug and book store, Coshocton, and C. M. Ferguson, Roscoe.

Delay Caused By Bad Bricks

Owing to the fact that a large portion of the Townsend brick which was brought here to pave the road between the two bridges is defective the work of paving the approach to the Walhonding bridge has been put off until next Sunday. As soon as the approach is paved so that it can be driven over the remainder of the road will be closed and vehicles will be given a passage through the fields on the north side of the road while the rest of the road is being paved.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential.

Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local.

Dr. Shoop's Restorative, the Constitutional.

The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the repair of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments.

The "Night Cure", as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes sore and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, eases nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambition, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—as a general tonic to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Denied by Wood.

Manila, Nov. 5.—The story that a Japanese army officer was placed under arrest here for sketching certain of the fortifications of Manila harbor was denied by Major General Leonard Wood, who avers that no such arrest was made and that no Japanese have taken sketches of the fortifications. It is well known that since United States occupation Japanese have been engaged in making maps of the Philippines. There is no existing law to prohibit them, although such laws were in force under the Spanish regime. General Wood has just returned to Manila from a hunting expedition.

Had Nothing to Say.

New York, Nov. 5.—Samuel Mandle, the cotton buyer of Sparta, Ga., who was arrested on telegraphic request from Sparta charging him with forgery in connection with a cotton sale, was arraigned in court and committed to the Tombs for further examination. Mandle had nothing to say in court.

THE STATE TICKET.

Democracy is in desperate straits this year over its state ticket and have opened their mud batteriesagainst the Republican ticket in vain endeavor to save them from defeat At the opening of the campaign they tried to bring the shade of the lamented Pattison into the campaign without success. Gov. Pattison's victory was a personal one. Then the cry changed, and they cry "boss" just as the boy on the hilltop tried "wolf." But the people of Ohio know well that the candidates on the Republican ticket this year are clean honest men, free from taint, and they will be elected. The sore spot of the Democratic campaign is the body blow the anti-saloon league delivered at Diegle, their candidate for dairy and food commissioner, and the endorsement by the league of Mr. Dunlap, the Republican nominee. That event has discredited many hypocritical writers who have tried to pose as blown-in-the bottle temperance advocates, and at the same time have lauded Diegle.

The election of the state ticket tomorrow looks assured, and Coshocton county will come close to giving the head of the Republican ticket a plurality in spite of a natural Democratic majority.

FOR CONGRESS.

Tariff revision in time of prosperity always has halted and always will halt business activity, production and commerce. The manufacturer will lessen his output for he fears to pile up his product unless there is reasonable certainty of realizing its cost and a fair profit. The farmer halts in making improvements and consumes less because there is a shortened demand for his products. The decrease in the wages of labor alone pending revision would amount to millions of dollars. Where there is confidence, prosperity, good times and good prices there would be doubt, disaster and panic. Judge Smyser is opposed to tinkering with the tariff.

FOR CIRCUIT JUDGE.

The laws of the land so arrange it that lawsuits where satisfaction is not gained by both sides, may be carried up to a higher court, where three judges sit. These three are there to carefully scrutenize all the evidence that had been presented in the lower courts, and if the law has not been strictly followed, to order a new trial of the case, or, if they approve, to sustain the lower court. It is for this important office that the Republicans of this district have nominated Judge Souers, of Tuscarawas county, a jurist who has won commendation of all parties as a common pleas judge and whose fitness for the high office he has been named for, none gainsay save one or two country editors who are poking fun at justices of the peace and declare Judge Souers "looks like a j p." Judge Souers' wide experience and reputation for square deals, have brought him supporters from all parties. Vote for him Tuesday.

FOR COMMON PLEAS JUDGE

Everybody avoids a lawsuit if he can help it, but humanity is so constructed that at times honest opinions differ radically and then some one is called to sit in judgment—and that someone must be a man who is fair, honest, impartial, deliberate, of staunch integrity and possesses the confidence of those who call him to sit in judgment. Think of that Mr. Voter—THE MAN YOU ELECT TOMORROW MAY BE CALLED TO SIT IN JUDGMENT WHERE YOU YOURSELF ARE CONCERNED. James Glenn's qualifications are above cavil and not once during the campaign have they been impugned in the slightest degree. He is a profound student of the law and possesses the analytical mind so necessary to properly administer justice. Elect him common pleas judge. YOUR vote may do it.

The more work there is to do inthis country the higher the wages that will be paid for doing it. That policy which according to Judge Smyser secures the largest amount of work to be done at home is the policy which will secure to our laboring men steady employment at the best wages.

It would certainly be interesting to know how the present political situation could be improved by the arrant nonsense and current slush and fakerwork of the Democratic press in the 17th Congressional District. IT HAS FAILED THUS FAR TO PRESENT A SINGLE TANGIBLE REASON OR ARGUMENT FOR ASHBROOK'S ELECTION.

FOR SURVEYOR.

As active field man for the commissioners, the man who is surveyor has a lot to say. Place in that office a man with experience, and of ripened opinion. George Baumgardner is the man the Republican party presents and it stands at his back with heartiest endorsement of his ability and integrity. Mr. Baumgardner is a workingman. Vote for him.

FOR INFIRMARY DIRECTOR.

A man who is successful in business management and at the same time whose goodness of heart is a strong characteristic, is the kind of a man to place on the board of infirmary directors Such a happy combination is possessed by J. Lee Moore, the Republican candidate for that office. Mr. Moore possesses the respect and friendship of an ever widening circle of friends and is a man eminently successful in affairs—a farmer, stockman, businessman, and withal a hardworker, and of strictest honesty. The infirmary board needs his advice and judgment.

FOR PROSECUTOR.

In Levi Williams, the Republicans of Coshocton county present a man to be voted on in tomorrow's election, against whom nothing but commendation may be said. He is a deep student of law, an active practitioner, and in the public offices he has so far filled, has done it with credit to himself and the community. He has made an excellent city solicitor, a fair and square justice of the peace and will make Coshocton county one of the best prosecutors she ever had.

FOR RECORDER.

Tomorrow comes the battle of ballots and one of the important places to be filled in this county is the office of recorder. The Republican candidate for the place is J. W. Magruder who is too well and favorably known to need laudation. He is a business man, an old school teacher and would introduce to the office business methods so badly needed. He is a fair, square, honest man, and merits the support of every voter.

FOR COMMISSIONER.

The county commissioners' board is now composed of two Democrats and one Republican the latter to retire and be succeeded either by John E Aronhalt or the Democratic nominee Democratic leaders a few years ago openly advocated the election of a Republican on this important board for the sake of minority representation. The rule holds good today. Moreover, Mr. Aronhalt is splendidly qualified for the place. He will represent every corner of the county, not a section. He is a workingman and a farmer and will watch the corners and save the taxpayer money. Elect him

FOR CORONER.

It is not only preferable to have a good doctor for coroner, but also to have one who will be active and attentive if elected. Dr. Lear has filled the office most acceptably the last two years. He asks and deserves re-election. His opponent held the office for four years recently, and now ask for a third term. There is a popular demand that two terms are enough. Endorse Dr. Lear's first term by voting for him Tuesday.

BANKING LAW DEFEAT.

Responsibility For It Rests Squarely Upon Democrats.

In the Seventy-seventh general assembly, on Thursday, March 29, 1906, amended House Bill No 250, by Mr Thomas, having passed the house, was messaged to the state senate. This measure provided for the establishing of a bureau of banks and banking, together with a thorough inspection of all state banks. When first read in the senate, on motion of Senator Hypes, the bill was read the second time for immediate reference to the committee on banks and banking. This action was taken that the bill might receive immediate consideration on the part of the senate. The senate committee on banks and banking was composed of four Democrats (Beatty, Howe, Denman and Hufford), one Independent (Lamb of Toledo), and two Republicans (Hypes and Russell). Upon its consideration by this senate committee, the two Republicans signed a favorable report recommending the Thomas house bill for passage. All the other members of the committee withheld their names from any report, thus throttling this bill by preventing any action upon it coming before the senate.

Two days, after Monday, April 2, almost the last thing before the legislature adjourned for two years, the Democratic senate deliberately threw away its final opportunity before 1908 to make good the Democratic profession of friendship for a bank inspecting bill. The Republican house, upon learning of the senate committee's action in killing their first house banking bill, promptly passed a second bill, providing for the inspection only, thus seeking to protect and guard the interests of depositors throughout the state. A similar fate awaited this measure. The senate Democracy, however, were in this instance more merciful. They did not administer a slow death as in the instance of the first bill passed by the house, but sandbagged the inspection bill on its first appearance. No sooner had House Bill No. 667, by Mr. Thomas, providing for a banking inspection been handed down in the senate than the Democratic majority, casting all promises to the winds, promptly buried the measure beneath their votes. Upon this final vote only six Democrats voted to consider the inspection bill, which a Republican house had just passed, while a majority of the Republican senators gave house bill their support.

The Book Lovers.

The Book Lovers club took up the study of "Jane Cable," George Barr McCutcheon's latest book at the meeting held Friday evening with Mrs. Kuntz The characters and plot were analyzed and discussed pro and con and an interesting resume of current happenings was brought out in response to roll call.

The next meeting will be with Miss Belle King and at that time "The Wood Carver of "Lympus" will be taken up.

The Choral Society.

The production of "David Corson" at the Sixth street theatre Friday evening prevented a number who are much interested in musical work from attending the initial meeting of the choral society which was held at the library Friday evening, but work was taken up nevertheless and will be carried on with increased numbers at the following meetings. They will be held each Friday evening during the winter at 7 o'clock. The work taken up is a beautiful musical setting to Tennyson's poem "The Lady of Shalot" and will be studied under the direction of Miss Mary Gage Mortley with Miss Winifred Hanlon and Miss Irma Coe as accompanists The production of it cannot but be a source of delight to all who love beautiful music This choral society, if people do but realize it, is quite an addition to Coshocton. It is not intended merely for people who have devoted much time and money to the cultivation of their voices but for all who enjoy singing and have any ability along that line. The idea of it was not conceived with the thought of financial return for any one but merely that the love of good music may be give an impetus in Coshocton. The list of membership in the society is open at all time for recruits and it is hoped that a large number of ladies will be present at the meeting next Friday evening.

Nervous Women

Their Sufferings Are Usually Due to Female Disorders Perhaps Unsuspected

A MEDICINE THAT CURES

Can we dispute the well-known fact that American women are nervous?

How often do we hear the expression, "I am so nervous, it seems as if I should fly;" or, "Don't speak to me." Little things annoy you and make you irritable; you can't sleep, you are unable to quietly and calmly perform your daily tasks or care for your children.

The relation of the nerves and generative organs in woman is so close that nine-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous debility, the blues, sleeplessness and nervous irritability arise from some derangement of the organism which makes her a woman. Fits of depression or restlessness and irritability; spirits easily affected, so that one minute she laughs, the next minute weeps; pain in the abdominal region and between the shoulders; loss of voice; nervous dyspepsia; a tendency to cry at the least provocation—all these point to nervous prostration.

Nothing will relieve this distressing condition and prevent months of prostration and suffering so surely as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. M. E. Shotwell, of 103 Flatbush Avenue, Brooklyn, N. Y., writes:

"I cannot express the wonderful relief I have experienced by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered for a long time with nervous prostration, backache, headache, loss of appetite. I could not sleep and would walk the floor almost every night.

"I had three doctors and got no better, and life was a burden. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has worked wonders for me.

"I am a well woman, my nervousness is all gone and my friends say I look ten years younger."

Will not the volumes of letters from women made strong by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound convince all women of its virtues? Surely you cannot wish to remain sick, weak and discouraged, exhausted each day, when you can be as easily cured as other women.

The Daughters of Rebekah held their regular meeting Friday evening in the I. O. O. F. hall and completed arrangements for the dance they will give in Forbes hall Nov. 15. She spoke particularly of the natural wealth of the country and the climatic peculiarities, a fact which specially impressed her hearers being the statement that it is colder at the equator than in the regions farther north. Miss Burch who spent the greater part of the summer in Wyoming also exhibited a number of pictures which she took of the scenery there and the collection of the flora of the region which she had mounted.

The evening ended with the serving of delicious refreshments and the next meeting will be held with Miss Anne Ridgeley.

Remember?

How you squirmed to escape a dose of cod liver oil.

That was years ago.

Now children and elderly folks take VINOL.

Vinol is a real cod liver preparation with the useless oil taken out — tonic iron added.

That's why Vinol restores health and creates strength.

Vinol tastes good, and is a great improvement on old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions.

Local Negro Crimps Politician

Local Democrats who have been trying to hocus-pocus the negro vote in this community the last few days ran up against it Monday morning when a hard-working Democratic politician side tracked a local colored man and tried to show him how he should vote for Ashbrook to support the president The colored man pulled a newspaper from his pocket and showed him an item from Pittsburg, Kans. reporting Senator Tillman's speech In it this passage was marked

"Like the Indian, the only good nigger is a dead nigger," declared the South Carolina statesman, and he then proceeded to tell about how the people of his state cleaned out negroes when the whites thought they were getting to be too "fresh."

"Our college professors say we should educate the negro. That would be the worst thing that could happen Educate a negro, build him up intellectually, and he would become more dangerous than ever, more dangerous than an ignorant negro.

"You cannot educate the morals of a nigger. His heart is black, the same as his skin and education and legislation cannot improve it."

The politician slunk off and has steered clear of colored citizens ever since

Water Pipe Broke in Factory

A burst water pipe in the Tuscarora plant of the Meek company, was the cause of considerable hustling about 10 o'clock Saturday night. The pipe was fastened to the ceiling, and the fastening came loos, and let the pipe drop, causing it to break midway between the next two fastenings. The pipe was on the second floor, just over the shipping room, and the rooms were flooded. Luckily not much stock was in the way, or the damage would have been great.

FARMER DUNLAP

HIS REPLY TO AN ATTACK "ANONYMOUS, COWARDLY AND TREACHEROUS" PRAISED.

"OHIO FARMER" SPEAKS PLAINLY

He "Is the Farmer Candidate For Whom All of the Agricultural Interests of State Have Worked So Hard—A Sure-Enough Practical Farmer—A Good, Clean, Honest, Upright Man"—His Opponent Scored.

The Ohio Farmer, Cleveland, O., Oct. 20, 1906, said:

We have received several copies of an anonymous letter that has probably been sent broadcast over the state of Ohio attacking the legislative record of Hon. Renick W. Dunlap, the farmer candidate for dairy and food commissioner. Although this letter is anonymous—which stands for cowardly, insidious, treacherous — it makes several statements that seem serious, upon first reading, and might cause the farmers of Ohio to look upon Mr. Dunlap's campaign with distrust. Therefore, the first thing that we did when we received this "letter" was to send it to Mr. Dunlap and offer him an opportunity to reply to it through the columns of the Ohio Farmer. We are interested in his campaign because he is the farmer candidate for whom all of the agricultural interests of the state have worked so hard; because he is a sure-enough practical farmer with the interests of agriculture at heart, and because he is a good, clean, upright man.

(His reply to the "letter," above mentioned, follows in the "Farmer" in full, but is omitted here because of its length. The "Farmer" then goes on to say:)

In addition to the bills mentioned by Mr. Dunlap he supported many others that related to agriculture—in fact every good bill of that class. We might mention the bill to appropriate money for an Ohio live stock exhibit at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition; an act to define maple syrup and maple sugar, to provide against adulteration thereof; to regulate automobiles upon the public highways; all good roads legislation. No, Mr. Dunlap's legislative record can not be found faulty, from the farmers' standpoint.

Concerning this "letter" that has been circulated, we would say: 1. No anonymous letter should be given respectful attention and no decent man would write one. 2. The "letter" is signed "Brother Grangers" and dated Ashville, O., as if sent out officially by the Grange near that village. It is an insult to Nebraska Grange, at Ashville, and we are glad that Master Cortright brands as a lie the inference that it came from that Grange. 3. In attacking the candidate of the farmers it suggests no reason why his opponent should be elected and says nothing of his record. It seeks to tear down without attempting to build up. 4. It is "muck raking" and slander of the worst sort to magnify any man's misdeeds, in fact or fancy, and make no mention of the good that he has done. We have no respect for that sort of politics. We urge every reader of the Ohio Farmer who is an Ohio voter to read Senator Dunlap's convincing reply to this intensely mean, sneaking and lying attack. The farmers of both the great political parties demand that a sure-enough farmer, who is in sympathy with pure food and common honesty, be nominated for this office, which was created at the demand of the farmers and for their protection. One party nominated a farmer, thoroughly competent, honest, true to the interests of agriculture. The other party, at the instance, and with the aid of party bosses, Harvey Garber and Tom L. Johnson, defeated for nomination the farmers' candidate a farmer true to the interests of agricultural and of decency and honesty, Newton L. Bunnel, and nominated Mr. Rodney J. Deigle, who is not a farmer, and whose flippant and insulting reply to a courteous inquiry (published on our editorial page with comment Oct. 6) shows, first, his contempt for farmers and, second, that he is in apparent sympathy with food adulteration. Please read that reply again. We have simply this to say in conclusion: The farmers demanded a farmer candidate. One party gave them one, and a good one. If now the farmers permit this farmer, Senator Dunlap, to be defeated, for election by the non-farmer who wrote the letter published in part by us Oct. 6, then they should hide their faces in shame and never again ask to have a farmer nominated for anything. This is not written to favor any party, but to favor agricultural and common honesty. The Ohio Farmer knows no politics aside from the interests of agriculture. We should write with equal earnestness. If the case were reversed and the best man for the agricultural interests were in the other party, as is seen in our editorial on this page in regard to the Republican Candidate Wadsworth of New York.

GERMAN FRONTIER

Continues to Be the Zone of Active Espionage by France.

Paris, Nov. 5.—Two recent cases of espionage attracted more or less attention here. A woman of Toulon, suspected of being a spy in the employ of a foreign power, was convicted last week on the testimony of a sailor, who swore she tried to bribe him to steal plans of fortifications and submarine vessels. The other is Gaston Maitrugue, an artillery reservist, who was arrested at Meaux for a trifling offense. When searched the firing instructions for the French army and tracings of drawing of the mechanism of siege, field and other guns were found in his possession. Maitrugue claims that he is simply interested in the question of armaments generally, but appearances are against him. His case is still pending as, generally speaking, cases of esplorage are not but the appearances are against him. Arrests of suspects, particularly on the German frontier, take place constantly, and are exploited by a section of the French press as proof of the warlike designs of Germany.

Standard's New Oil Field.

Shreveport, La., Nov. 5. — The Standard Oil company bought 42 acres in the Caddo City oil field, 20 miles north of Shreveport, and will begin operations at once in the development of the property. There is one flowing well on the property and to handle the product a complete pumping station, a pipe line and storage tanks will be erected. It is the intention of the Standard Oil company to ship the crude oil to its refinery at Beaumont until the field is fully developed, when a refinery will be erected in Shreveport.

Coshocton is one of the most enterprising towns in Ohio. Along with its other enterprises it is going to have a new Union Depot. All preparations and arrangements are being made. 5-6

"East Lynne"

Will Be Presented at Lahm's Opera House, Fresno, Tuesday Evening, November 13.

"East Lynne," the old familiar play whose name has passed into a household word will be presented at Lahm's opera house, Fresno, by the Joseph King company. The play is too well known to need descritpion and the company plays it with force and feeling. The dramatic situations are strongly accented and those who are fond of the touching old drama find nothing to criticise. The company is a good one and deserves a good house. 3, 5, 6

Big Wool Sale.

The past week has almost cleared up wool crop of Harrison county. Hockheimer, of Wheeling, purchased 26,700 pounds. Carnahan & Sawvel, wool buyers of Cadiz, sold 55,000 pounds to the Globe Woolen company. Senator Hogg purchased the wool clip of John Croskey, of Green township, paying 34 cents a pound. This clip amounted to about 5,000 pounds, and is one of the very best clips in the county. In the square mile of which Mr. Croskey lives there are more sheep kept than any other square mile of the state. Four carloads of wool was shipped east from the Cadiz station in one day.

PARLOR FURNITURE

Great care should be exercised in the selection of parlor furniture A duty we owe ourselves—to have our "first room" correct in all of its appintments.

Much decepti n is being practiced in the construction of upholstered furniture, such as inferior spring work, being poorly tied, and the use of cheap worthless filling, no matter how nice the covers may be.

Our furniture men have been identified in the manufacture of upholstered furniture and are more capable of judging good workmanship than the man who does not understand that kind of work.

Davenports $17.50, $24, $36, $45, $52 up to $75.

COWARDLY ATTACK A MALICIOUS LIE

A local newspaper published a sensational story Saturday evening to the effect that Postmaster Snyder had caused a part of the postoffice force to be engaged in Republican headquarters doing campaign work; that on account of this there was only a partial force in the postoffice, with the result that mails were congested, etc.

This statement would be very important if true; but there is not one word of truth in it. The nearest approach to truth that could be imagined is the fact that one of two or three girls employed doing clerical work at Republican headquarters was Miss Zora Smith, who is a substitute clerk at the postoffice. The duty of a substitute clerk is to take the place of any other clerks who may be absent from the postoffice on account of illness or vacation. When not thus performing service for some absent clerk the substitute has no relation, whatever to the postoffice and employs her time doing whatever else she may see fit. Miss Smith was not employed at the postoffice at that time, and Postmaster Snyder had nothing whatever to do with her employment to do the campaign work in question She was employed for that work by C. B. McCoy, chairman of the Republican Executive Committee, and was paid for the work by W. E. Rose, treasurer, upon order of C. B. McCoy, chairman. No other postoffice employe had anything whatever to do with the work in the Republican headquarters.

The other statement that Mr. Snyder has been traveling extensively over the county, doiome campaign work is entirely untrue. The only trip of that kind he has made during the entire campaign was one which consumed only three hours of time.

The statement that Postmaster Snyder had done such a thing is without fact and without warrant, and goes to show the depths of political degradation to which some newspapers go in campaign times.

When a Woman Buys a Wrap

She wants all the good qualities in it that a wrap should have. She wants good material—material that will look well today, tomorrow and next week. She wants good making—tailoring that will last, and most of all, she wants style.

We don't claim a monopoly of good materials. We don't have a corner on good making, but we do say, and truly, that our wraps have a style, an individuality about them that is all their own, and which is to be obtained nowhere else.

Already the stock has been depleted, and reserves have taken the place of those going out. We want you to select your winter wraps now, before the best are picked out. Last week was a big week with us in this department. We expect this one to be even better.

We have the stock, the full assortment of sizes, the styles, and last of all we have the prices, that beat them all.

Give us a look before you make your selection.
